HIGHLAND SPRINGS

No preaching in the Methodist Church here today. Sunday-school at the usual hour, 10 A. M.

The congregation of the Jefferson Memorial Unitarian Church will unite in worship with the Richmond congregation in the new Colonial Chapel, on Floyd Avenue. The pastor, Rev. John L. Robinson, is in poor health, so his place will be filled to-day by a minister from Baltimore.

The Rosalind Circle, of Highland Springs, will give an entertainment on March 9th, at 8 o'clock P. M., in the Methodist Church Hall, for the benefit of missions. Miss Kate Elsmere Fuller, the most charming eclectonist of Richmond, will give some choice selections. We ask our friends to come out and enjoy a pleasant evening and help us in a most worthy cause.

Miss Josie Carr, Miss Fannie Montello and Master Freddie Bonnell, of Richmond, were guests on Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Conduy, on Holly Avenue.

Miss Eva Beale visited friends and relatives in Petersburg during the past week.

Mr. O. Miller made a business trip to Chesterfield during the past week.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Church will meet on next Tuesday at "Sunset Cottage," the home of Mrs. J. W. Dudley. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Katie Wendell, with two children, Charlie and Virginia, and Mr. Frank Anderson, were guests at "Honeysuckle Cottage" on Thursday, February 22d.

Mrs. J. W. Dudley and Mrs. Childs visited Dr. S. A. Roope at "Lynnhurst" during the week.

Dr. Wakefield, of Gannett, Pa., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. Miller, of "Ben Lomond Lodge." The doctor is also looking after his property in the village.

It will be interesting to the friends of the contracting parties to know that Miss Genevieve Richardson and Mr. Cecil Gilbert Young, of King and Queen county, will shortly be married, the date of which has not been definitely arranged.

Young is brother of Mr. Leonard Young, business man. Miss Richardson is exceedingly popular, her charming personality winning friends wherever she goes.

Miss Mildred Turner, of Newport News, will be her only attendant, and Mr. Dew, of King and Queen county, will be best man.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Chilcott and Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle were entertained during the week at the "Tower House," guests of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Smith.

Mr. Joe Miller, of "Ben Lomond Lodge," visited friends in Hanover during the past week.

ATLEE ITEMS

One of the most charming entertainments of the season was given in the Washington and Henry Academy Hall on Wednesday evening, February 14th, when Rev. E. E. Osgood gave a very instructive lecture on "Physical Culture," among the others who entertained, were: Mrs. Osgood, of Henrico, with a vocal solo; Miss Tucker, of Richmond, instrumental music; Miss Thompson, of Henrico, a recitation. Four children sang "Everybody Works but Father."

Misses Aurelia Davis, Ada Long, and Jeannette Quarles, gave the pantomime "Nearer My God to Thee," and Miss Bertie Sheldon, of Ruel, recited a very beautiful selection. After the program was rendered, oysters were served, and the net sum of $15.00 was realized.

Mrs. W. E. Beal, of Walnut Grove, spent the first of this week with her sister, Mrs. G. C. Smith, near here. From here she visited her sister, Mrs. J. E. Smith, in Fairmount.

A delightful dance was given at "Holly Cross" near here, Friday night, February 16. The young folks danced until midnight, then supper was served, and dancing was continued until the wee hours of morning.

Lee Roe, the merchant at Hazlewell, near here, is conducting a thriving business.

Dr. Gray, of this place, has an office in Richmond, and remains there in the day and comes to his home in the evening.

Cleo and Edward Lucord, were quite sick last week.
